- WHO: <http://www.who.int/en/>
- Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs: <http://ochaonline.un.org/>

In addition to equipment and commodities, agencies with services such as medical, volunteers, Search and Rescue, etc. should contact the United Nations agencies listed above or work through a Non-Governmental Organization (NGOs) listed below.

NGOS:

Cash donations (which are preferred at this time) from individuals or private sector can be made through the following sites:

- InterAction: <http://www.interaction.org/crisis-list/earthquake-haiti>
- AidMatrix: <http://www.aidmatrix.org/haiti.htm>
- ALAN: <http://www.aidmatrix.org/alan/about.html>
- CIDI: <http://www.cidi.org/>

If donors do not feel comfortable donating to these organizations, they are encouraged to donate to local offices of the American Red Cross (<https://american.redcross.org>) or Salvation Army (http://www.salvationarmy.org/ihq/www_sa.nsf).

Locating Family in Haiti:

The State Department Operations Center has set up the following phone number for Americans seeking information about family members in Haiti: 1-888-407-4747 (due to heavy volume, some callers may receive a recording). You can also send an email to the State Department. Please be aware that communications within Haiti are very difficult at this time.
