

Hurricane preparedness and Disaster Plan for Clean-up and Debris Management

The “final” version of the Comprehensive Plan for Disaster Clean-up and Debris Management, dated July 1, 2009 and its attachments is posted in MS Word at:

<http://www.deq.louisiana.gov/portal/tabid/2853/Default.aspx>.

Potential storms are starting to develop in the Eastern Atlantic. You can keep up with them through the National Hurricane Center at <http://hurricanes.gov> or subscribe to daily tropical cyclone updates at <http://www.nhc.noaa.gov/signup.shtml>.

September is “National Hurricane Preparedness Month”. September 2009 marks the sixth annual National Preparedness Month, sponsored by the US Department of Homeland Security, see <http://www.ready.gov/america/npm08/intro.html>

Be prepared for hurricane season – go to the Get a Game Plan Web site at www.getagameplan.org.