DEQ to hold kick-off meeting for Louisiana Environmental Leadership Program

Who: Governor's Environmental Leadership Program
Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality

What: Kick-off meeting for Environmental Leadership Program

When: Tuesday, Dec. 4
10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Where: Oliver Pollock Room
DEQ Conference Center
602 North 5th Street
Baton Rouge

Why: Community, industry and governmental representatives are invited to the kick-off meeting for the Louisiana Environmental Leadership Program. Participants will learn information about the program, DEQ, and hear environmental success stories from past participants.

The Environmental Leadership Program is a voluntary program sponsored by professional, environmental, industrial, and municipal associations. Any industrial facility, federal facility or parish/municipal governmental unit committed to improving the quality of Louisiana's environment through pollution prevention is eligible to join the program as a participating member. For more information on the program call Nathan Mills at 225-219-1208 or go to the DEQ website at <http://www.deq.louisiana.gov/portal/tabid/89/Default.aspx>.
