

Bayou Vermilion Preservation Association to host "Clean Streams" lecture series

On Aug. 11, the bayou Vermilion Preservation Association ) will host the "Clean Streams" lecture series to promote litter-free water and improved water quality in along the vermilion. The speakers include Bob Cole, a past president of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce, Dr. David Chermie, CEO of the Bayou Vermilion District (BVD) and BVD Board of Commissioners Chairman Rodney Richard.

It will be held at Vermilionville, 300 Fisher Road, Lafayette at 11:30 a.m. and the media and public are invited.